Social Security Withhold Form
(To Withhold Trinity Health Plan Of New England Monthly Premiums From Your Social Security Check)

Important Information About this Premium Payment Option
It is important that you understand a few facts about this option before choosing it. After reading the information below you may complete, sign and return this form to Trinity Health Plan Of New England for processing.

PLEASE READ:
1. It could take up to 3 months for this payment option to begin.
2. You will not receive a bill from Trinity Health Plan Of New England while this option is being processed.
3. To use this option, the amount of your monthly Social Security check must be equal-to or greater-than one month's worth of Trinity Health Plan Of New England premium.
4. The first premium payment withheld from your Social Security check may be for an amount representing up to 3 months worth of Trinity Health Plan Of New England premiums (if it takes that long to set this payment option up for you).
5. You may receive a notice from us if all past due premiums are not paid in full once your first Social Security “withhold” payment is received by Trinity Health Plan Of New England.
6. Medicare does not permit more than three months worth of premium payments to be withheld from your check at one time. This may prevent some individuals from taking advantage of this option.
7. Non-payment of premiums will generally result in your loss Trinity Health Plan Of New England coverage; though you can not be disenrolled for “non-payment” while this option is being processed.
8. If you change from one Medicare plan to another, including a Trinity Health Plan Of New England change, it generally stops your Social Security withhold payment option. In such cases, we would have to re-establish this payment option for you (which could take up to 3 months to accomplish once started).
9. In some cases, if you are new to Trinity Health Plan Of New England, your prior Medicare plan premium could be withdrawn from your Social Security check in error; rest assured Social Security will refund that amount back to you on a future or separate Social Security check.
10. Trinity Health Plan Of New England members occasionally pay their premiums directly to Trinity Health Plan Of New England while this payment option is being setup. That is acceptable. Trinity Health Plan Of New England will promptly refund any overpayments created once we receive due premiums from Social Security.
