

NOTICE TO OUR PATIENTS

FREE LANGUAGE SERVICE

Trinity Health Of New England Corporation, Inc. and its affiliates, including Johnson Memorial Hospital, provide equal access to all persons, including those who have Limited English Proficiency (LEP), those who are deaf, hard of hearing, visually impaired or have other special communication needs.

To make sure everyone is understood, we provide 3 interpretation options (telephone, video remote and in-person), which include sign language, oral interpretation, TTY telephones, assisted-listening devices, and other auxiliary aids; plus translation of written materials. All services will be provided in a timely manner and are FREE of charge to patients and their companions who are deaf, hard of hearing, LEP or have speech or other communication disabilities. Telephone and video remote interpreters are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, in more than 210 languages.

You have the right to FREE language assistance. Please tell our staff if you require help, or call 860-684-4251 and we will arrange it for you.

If you believe that we have failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance by calling 860-714-9998, [TTY 860-714-4447], or emailing JMHPatientExperience@trinityhealthofne.org. If you need help filing a grievance, please contact the Patient Relations by calling 860-714-9998.

You can also file a civil rights complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, electronically through the Office for Civil Rights Complaint Portal, available at <https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/portal/lobby.jsf>, or by mail or phone at:
