

Welcome to Johnson Memorial Hospital!

The below information is intended for colleagues who are required to attend Patient Care Services (PCS) Clinical Orientation. Colleagues working in clinical areas such as RNs, LPNs, PCTs, ED Techs, Unit Secretaries, Mental Health Workers, and Sitters/Observers are required to attend PCS Orientation.

Our goal is to make the orientation process a successful & positive experience for all colleagues. It is important to communicate scheduling conflicts as soon as possible. Email your hiring manager or nursing educator Michelle Moeller, MSN, RN at Michelle.Moeller@trinityhealthofne.org with any questions, concerns, or conflicts. This communication should occur prior to your start date. Please understand, these requests are not guaranteed & they will need to be approved by your leader.

Uniforms

Please visit this site: au-corp.com to order uniforms (be sure to select Johnson Memorial Hospital)

Orientation Timeline

Your availability will need to be flexible during orientation. Orientation will consist of virtual, classroom, and clinical training. Michelle Moeller in Nursing Education will reach out to you prior to your start date to coordinate your orientation plan.

Day	Subject	Schedule
Day 1	In-Person Orientation	Held at Saint Francis Hospital in Hartford, CT . Please refer to your clearance email for details.
Day 2 -14+	Classes & Clinical	EPIC Training – regional computer-based training class conducted at Saint Francis Hospital or Mercy Medical Center. You will receive more information prior to your start date with specific details from Nursing Education. PCS Orientation – conducted by nursing education in combination with other department personnel onsite at Johnson Memorial. Unit Orientation – Work with an assigned preceptor. *These classes/trainings/shifts may be a combination of 8 or 12 hour shifts (days/evenings/nights with weekend rotations). Hours vary depending on role and preceptor schedule.

Please reach out to your hiring manager or nursing educator Michelle Moeller at Michelle.Moeller@trinityhealthofne.org with any questions or concerns.

Welcome to the Johnson Memorial Hospital and Trinity Health Of New England team!